

Institute of Certified Management Accountants of Sri Lanka

Incorporated by an Act of Parliament No: 23 of 2009

Notice

To : CMA Students

Subject : Exemptions Eligibility Letters issued under the Syllabus effective from 2012

This is to inform that the new CMA Professional Programme 2018-2022 Curriculum come into effect from year 2018.

Please be advised that, If you wish to obtain the exemptions according to the already issued letter i.e. under 2012 syllabus (letter dated during 1st January 2012 to 5th September 2017) please make the payment applicable on or before 30th November 2017 which should be sent to us along with the “Application for Exemptions”.

The Exemptions eligibility letters issued under the 2012 syllabus which are due for payment after 30th November 2017 will be cancelled. Therefore those students must re-request the exemptions along with the “Requisition for Exemptions” with duly certified copies of your academic/professional qualifications which is subject to an additional charge of Rs. 1500/=.

Please note that with the effect of the Professional programme 2018, it is subject to change in the existing exemptions policy & the fee rates.

Senior Director - Education & Examinations
CMA Sri Lanka